Num. 561

MONDAY, APRIL 11. 1737.

91. 559.

The Ship-News which hitherto has been inserted in the DAILY JOURNAL, will for the future be continued in this Paper.

Yesterday arriv'd a Mail from France.

HEY write from Vienna, that a Courier arriv'd there, the 16th ult. Old Stile, who reports, That the Populace and Janisaries still bawl for a War, but that the Ministry begins to shew a greater Inclination to Peace than heretofore. That a little before he came away the People assembled in divers Parts of the Town, demanding that all the Negotiations with Russia may be broke off; but that the Musti having found Means to speak with the Leaders, he remonstrated to them, that in the present Juncture the Ottoman Empire would be intirely swallow'd up, if they did not declare for a Peace: That these Remonstrances had made some Impression on the People, but none at all upon the Janisaries.

'Tis the Opinion both of the Court and City of Vienna, that the Emperor will prefer the Prince of Saxe-Hilburghausen to the Government of Belgrade, and the Kingdom of Servia, vacant by the Death of the Duke of Wirtemberg.

The Emperor has been so gracious to the Prince of Modena, that he has given him Audience in his Cabinet of Looking-Glass; a Favour which has been granted hitherto to none but a very few Foreign Princes.

Tuesday last M. Bray set out from the Hague for France, to take upon him the Charge, which he had before the late Rupture, of his Polish Majesty's Affairs at that Court.

The Dutches of Wirtemberg has notify'd the late Duke's Death to the Court of Dresden, and the Will of the Deceased was at the same time delivered to his Polish Majesty, whom he has therein nominated one of his Executors.

The Vice-Chancellor of Poland, who is lately return'd to Dresden, gives a melancholy Account of the great Distress which many of the poor Inhabitants in several Parts of Poland were in for want of Sustenance.

The Emperor has obtain'd Leave of the King of Poland for the Passage thro' Saxony of two Battalions, and a Company of Grenadiers, which the Duke of Wolfenbuttle lends that Prince to serve in Hungary.

The necessary Orders have been issued by the Court of Saxony, for a Body of 10,000 Men appointed to join his Imperial Majesty's Forces in Hungary, to be ready to march by the 10th of next Month. There are to be two Major Generals, two Lieutenant Generals, and a General in Chief; and 'tis not doubted but the latter will be Alexander Joseph Count Sulkowski, who on that Occasion will be made General of Foot. This Favourite of the King, who was Page to him in his Father's Life-time, has now the first Place in his Cabinet, and is Starost of Sokolnick, Chief Huntsman of Lithuania, Master of the Horse to the King, Great Master of the Wardrobe, Major General of the Forces, Colonel of the Crown Guards, and of a Regiment of Foot, and Knight of the Order of the White Eagle.

The Letters from Madrid of the 22d ult. O. S. confirm the Promotion of the Duke de Montemar, Captain General of his Catholick Majesty's Forces, to the Post of Secretary at War, and that he is to exercise that Office in the same Manner, as the late Marquis of Bedmar did.

His Catholick Majesty has appointed Don Bernardin de Marimon, one of his Major Generals, to be his Ambassador to Portugal.

On the 16th ult. O. S. died at Madrid, 65 Years of Age, the Duke del Arco, Knight of the Order of the Golden Fleece, the Holy Ghost, and St. Jago, a Gentleman of his Catholick Majesty's Bed-chamber, his Equerry, his Great Huntsman, and Governor of the Royal Palaces of the Pardo, Zarzuela, and the Tower of the Parade.

The Marquis de Pomponne, who died lately at Paris, made a Will with his own Hand, by which he appointed M. Neyret, Counsellor of the Parliament, his Executor, and left him a Diamond of 2000 Crowns Value. He bequeathed his Grand-daughters Mademoiselles de Gamaches and Cayen, viz. to the eldest 10,000 Livres per Ann. and to the youngest 15,000 per Ann. He has left to Mademoiselle de Tourempré St. Martin, a Relation of Madame de Pomponne, an Annuity of 500 Livres, and if she marries she is to have 3000 Livres paid her in hand in lieu of it.

The Prince de Craon arrived at Paris the 28th ult. from Lorain, to compliment the King and Queen on the Part of the King and Queen of Poland, and to acquaint them of their happy Arrival at Luneville.

They write from Naples, that a Learned Priest, who was formerly a Jew, preaching in St. Anne's Church of the Lombards, which is a spacious Edifice, where, besides his Sermons, he every Day expounded some Passages of Scripture, one of the Audience desir'd him one Day, to solve the following Difficulties. 1. How Eve came to have no Suspicions, when the Serpent beguild her; and how she could lend an Ear to his Words, since she knew perfectly well, that this Animal had not the Gift of Speaking? 2. How Adam and Eve could be condemn'd to die, if they were Immortal? 3. How the Serpent could be punish'd, since it was not capable of Merit or Demerit? 4. If the Punishment of the Serpent was its being doom'd to creep in the Dust, after what Manner did that Creature move before? The Preacher answer'd all these Questions with very great Learning, and explain'd them in such a Manner as gave general Satisfaction to the whole Audience: But the Neapolitan Court and Clergy being of apprehensive that this Way of explaining the Holy Scriptures, was liable to Inconveniences, and that Questions of this Nature might be disturbing to mean Capacities, and People of no Education, have forbid all such Conferences for the future. A strong Instance this, of the profound Respect paid by the Italians to the Mother of their Devotion!
